

KRISTINE QUINBY, M.Ed. , BCBA

Pipersville, PA. 18947

Experience

- Potential, Inc. Plumsteadville, PA
Executive Director/Founder 2005-Present
Developed a business plan and incorporated as a non-profit organization. Develop systems for quality assurance in outreach and clinical programs. Manage all human resources tasks including developing an effective employee evaluation process and motivation system. Coordinate fundraising efforts including grant writing and advertising campaigns.
- Self Employed Pipersville, PA
Behavior Consultant 2000 - Present
Provide consultative services to children with autism including creating and managing ABA-verbal behavior-discrete trial programs, training parents and staff, developing behavior plans, writing IEP goals and objectives, create accommodations in inclusive settings, supervising staff, independent evaluations, provide wraparound services as a behavior specialist and coordinate
- Bucks County Intermediate Unit Doylestown, PA
Special Education Teacher, Autistic Support Classroom 2000 - 2001
Taught children with autism in an Applied Behavior Analysis classroom using discrete trial; taught the Picture Exchange Communication System, wrote instructional programs, wrote and implemented IEPs, monitored progress, supervised and trained a staff of 5 instructional assistants, coordinated with home programs and supplemental services.
- Instructional Assistant, Autistic Support Classroom* 1998
Taught children with autism in an Applied Behavior Analysis classroom one on one using discrete trial; taught the Picture Exchange Communication System, took data on behavior and instructional programs.
- Pathway School Norristown, PA
Special Education Teacher, Autistic Support Classroom 1998 - 2000
Taught children with autism in an Applied Behavior Analysis classroom using discrete trial, wrote behavior plans, conducted functional assessments, wrote instructional programs, led team meetings, monitored progress, and supervised a staff of 5 assistants.
- Montgomery County Intermediate Unit Norristown, PA
Discrete Trial Therapist and Team Leader 1999 - 2000
Worked one on one in the home with a preschool child with autism; utilized discrete trial methodology; managed behavior using Applied Behavior Analysis techniques; maintained drill book and created forms; trained new staff.
- Wordsworth New Britain, PA
Mental Health Technician II/Unit Supervisor 1997
Supervised a residential unit for children with emotional support issues. Implemented the campus behavior management system and monitored staffs' use of the system including restraint procedures. Wrote progress notes for each student on the unit and directly supervised Mental Health Technicians I.
- Northwest Center, Inc. Philadelphia, PA
Resource Case Manager 1996 - 1997
Managed services for 20-26 children diagnosed with a mental illness; supervised wraparound staff, monitored children's progress, accessed and linked services and funding, organized and conducted team meetings, supported team, wrote treatment plans and service documentation.
- United Health and Human Services North Wales, PA
Therapeutic Support Staff 1995 - 1996
Worked one on one with children diagnosed with a mental illness in the home and school, implemented behavior management plans, provided social and emotional support to families, wrote daily reports on each child's progress.

Education

Penn State University

M.Ed. - Special Education - 3.3 GPA

Coursework included Applied Behavior Analysis Certification Program

Malvern, PA

2004

Holy Family University

Special Education Certification, Masters Level - 3.9 GPA

Philadelphia, PA

2001

Rider University

Elementary Education and Psychology, B.A.

Internship at Princeton Child Development Institute assisting Individuals with Autism; internship at Community Options, a group home for Mentally Retarded and Physically Challenged adults.

Lawrenceville, NJ

1995

Publications

Heath, W.P., Granneman, B.D., Sawa, S.E., & Hodge, K.M. (1995). Effects of detail in eyewitness testimony on decisions by mock jurors. The Journal of Offender Rehabilitation, Vol. 25: Num. 3/4, 1997.

Certification

- ◆ Elementary Education in Pennsylvania
- ◆ Special Education of the Physically/Mentally Handicapped in Pennsylvania
- ◆ Elementary Education in New Jersey
- ◆ Board Certified Behavior Analyst # 1-05-2402

Invited Speaking Engagements

Bucks County Intermediate Unit #22

Co-presenter for two 3 day paraprofessional training on discrete trial and verbal behavior for 60 individuals.

Doylestown, PA

Edison Township School District

Presented two half day workshops for paraprofessionals on an overview of autism for a total of 120 individuals.

Edison, NJ

Kiddie Academy

Provided a two hour training on preschooler's behavior and strategies for the entire school staff.

Plumsteadville, PA

Woods Services

Presented a full day workshop on increasing communication to decrease problem behavior (Verbal Behavior).

Langhorne, PA

PACEC Pre-Convention Workshop for Division of Early Childhood

Presented a two hour workshop entitled "What to do when they are under two" to promote developmental and age appropriate practices for children on the Autism Spectrum.

Grantville, PA

PACEC Division of Developmental Disabilities Showcase Session

Presented a two hour workshop entitled "Reducing Problem Behavior and Increasing Compliance in the Classroom Through Positive Reinforcement".

Grantville, PA

Memberships

- ◆ Council for Exceptional Children
- ◆ Association for Behavior Analysis
- ◆ Autism Society of America

Volunteer Activities

- ◆ Pennsylvania Council for Exceptional Children, Executive Board Member: Webmaster
- ◆ Pennsylvania Autism Task Force, Early Intervention Subcommittee
- ◆ Community Connections for All Children, Website Committee
- ◆ Parents of Autistic Children (POAC) of PA, Fundraising Committee